BIO:

David Lee Williams has been performing live around the US for over 15 years in places like Key West, FL out to the mid-west and all up and down the east coast in front of thousands. His experience includes band and solo performances as well as many hours of studio recording experience. He has a strong voice with great range and sings with energetic and emotional conviction. David has released numerous cds and tapes over the years and is currently working on several new projects. His works include original songwriting as well as poetry and a few short stories that he hopes to publish as novels one day. He has also appeared in many movies and performed on stage with such big name acts as REO Speedwagon and Saigon Kick.
